This supplement applies to all active duty military living, working or visiting Hill AFB, including AF reserves and National Guard, federal and DoD civilian employees, all guests, contractors or consultants employed by the Air Force and to their dependents. Maintain and dispose of records created as result of prescribed process in accordance with AFMAN 37-139, Records Disposition Schedule.

AFI 34-219, 9 September 1998, is supplemented as follows:

1.1.1. Each authorized sales outlet will keep a current copy of AFI 34-219, Alcoholic Beverage Program, and this supplement available for review by all prospective customers.

1.1.2. In accordance with Utah state law, no individual under the age of 21 may purchase, serve, sell, possess or drink alcoholic beverages on Hill Air Force Base. This paragraph applies to all individuals who may purchase, serve, sell, possess or drink such beverages; to include but not limited to those who stock alcoholic beverages for later sale. Reasonable measures shall be taken to ensure that individuals under the age of 21 cannot purchase, serve, sell, possess or drink alcoholic beverages.

1.3.2.3. (Added). Services activity managers authorized to sell alcoholic beverages will ensure annual training is provided to beverage supervisors and servers to familiarize these individuals with Air Force drinking policies. The training must cover Dram Shop liability; the methods of identifying intoxicated patrons and recommended procedures to prevent individuals from driving under the influence. This training must be documented in the employee's training record: The AF Form 971, Supervisor's Employee Brief, for civilians and the AF Form 623, Individual Training Record, for military members.

2.1. Alcoholic beverages may be sold at the collocated club, bowling center, lodging, Rod and Gun Clubhouse, golf course, Thornton Community Center, the Air Force Museum and other snack bars and refreshment stands operated by 75th Services Division employees, e.g., open house/air show, American Heritage Week, fund-raising events and approved special events.

2.1.2.1. Sale of miniatures and beer is authorized in lodging rooms, suites and at the front desk.

2.1.6. In addition to those areas listed in AFI 34-219 and this supplement, alcoholic beverages may also be served, possessed and consumed in:

- The base picnic areas and Log Cabin. NOTE: Private parties or groups may serve and consume beer in these areas; however, the host will not sell beer under any circumstances.
- Family housing.
- Dormitories, including bachelor quarters (officer and NCO).
- Transient and temporary lodging facilities.

In accordance with paragraph 1.1.2 of this supplement. The club may cater alcoholic beverages during special functions either through on-site snack bar operation or when contracted to set up portable bars in support of a special function.
